ELK

You may NOT apply for landowner preference for antelope or elk if you are applying as a party member.

Only one person may be delegated landowner preference for each sole proprietorship, partnership or corporation. A corporation may delegate the landowner preference to only one shareholder.

ANTELOPE, SPECIAL DEER PERMIT & DEER B LICENSES: Landowner preference will be applied only to your first choice district. To qualify for landowner preference, you must own or be contracting to purchase at least 160 acres of land in the hunting district for which you are making application. Your property must be primarily used for agriculture. Partnerships may delegate landowner preference to members of the immediate family (blood-related or marriage-related) or employed ranch manager (paid employee who has state, federal or FICA taxes withheld from pay). If a permit/license is valid for a portion of the hunting district only, the landowner must own land within that portion. Hunters who draw a special permit to hunt a mule deer buck may not hunt mule deer buck anywhere else in Montana.

FOR ANTELOPE, SPECIAL DEER PERMIT & DEER B LICENSE: (FIRST DISTRICT CHOICE ONLY)

Land is recorded in: _____;

Individual(s) or corporation name

County

ELK: Landowner preference will be applied only to your first choice district. To qualify for landowner preference, you must own or be contracting to purchase at least 640 acres of contiguous land, used by elk for one or more seasons, in the hunting district for which you are making application. Unusual or infrequent sightings of one or a few elk is not sufficient qualification for landowner preference. Contiguous land is land that is not interrupted by adjacent private land. Partnerships may delegate landowner preference to members of the immediate family (blood-related or marriage-related) or employed ranch manager (paid employee who has state, federal or FICA taxes withheld from pay). If a permit/license is valid for a portion of the hunting district only, the landowner must own land within that portion.
